Soccer Camp 2010

August 2nd – 5th J. C. Williams Soccer Complex, Weirton, WV

The Force Soccer Camp, in its third year, is designed to provide a distinctively different learning environment. Utilizing coaching techniques from around the world, the participants will experience soccer in a new way. Making it a fun and educational week. Utilizing a player to coach ratio of 8:1, each player will receive dedicated and individualized training. You will not just line up and kick balls at this camp. You will receive proper instruction and continuous activity.

Force Soccer has been a part of the valley's soccer landscape for many years. Now we want to bring our coaching experience to every player Tri-State area. Current and former college and high school coaches holding national certifications and licenses will be coordinating the activities.

Camp Personnel

Johann Marin – Head Soccer Coach Franciscan University, former Trinidad National Jr. Team player.

Ben Bird – Coach for Century United Soccer Club, National D-License.

Chris LeFever – Former Weir High Girl's Soccer head coach, International C License.

Bob Kolanko – Former Madonna Girl's Soccer head coach, National D License, Coordinator Force Soccer Club.
